

Third International G-I-N Conference

Lyon, France – 5-7 December 2005

Plenary session programme

Monday 5 December 2005

09:30-11:00 Plenary 1: Context within guidelines

Incorporating context into guidelines Niek Klazinga
 From evidence to recommendations: making decisions explicit Gene Feder

Discussant: Jako Burgers

Co-chairs: Isabelle Durand-Zaleski and Thierry Philip

16:00-17:30 Plenary 2: Globalise the evidence, localise the decision

Guideline adaptation - the way forward? Beatrice Fervers and Ian Graham
 Globalise the evidence, localise the formulation of recommendations challenges for shared development Jennifer Hill and Safia Qureshi

Discussant: Bernard Burnand

Co-chairs: Najoua Mlika-Cabanne and Jos Kleijnen

Tuesday 6 December 2005

08:30-10:30 Plenary 3: Programmes in context: capacity building

The next frontier: clinical governance and knowledge 'trafficking' in a client-centred world George Browman
 Capacity building for clinical behaviour change: Partnerships with healthcare professionals Patrick Castel
 Involving patients and carers in guideline development: the NICE experience Marcia Kelson

Discussant: Marjukka Maekelae

Co-chairs: Annabel Dunbavand and Gunter Ollenschlaeger

15:30-17:30 Plenary 4: Guidelines in context: knowledge translation and implementation

The science of changing clinical behaviour Martin Eccles
 Communicating guidelines - the challenges for implementation Eeva Ketola
 Getting the message across Susan Michie

Discussant: Alessandro Liberati

Co-chairs: Fadila Farsi and Jean Latreille

Wednesday 7 December 2005

09:00-11:00 Plenary 5: Guideline in context: evaluation

Audit criteria for monitoring use and impact of guidelines Melissa Brouwers
 Monitoring the use and impact of guidelines - experience in the UK
 Ambulance Service Joanne Fisher
 Monitoring the use of guidelines in practice - a case study in France Isabelle Ray-Coquard
 Monitoring the use of guidelines in practice - a case study in Canada Nicole Hébert-Croteau

Discussant: Richard Grol

Co-chairs: Mireille Poirier and Philippe Michel

11:30-13:00 Plenary 6: Closing plenary

Guidelines in context: what have we learnt - challenges for the future Isabelle Durand-Zaleski
 Presentation of G-I-N 2006 Rita Horvath and Roland Schaffler

Closing remarks: Béatrice Fervers and Jean Latreille

Co-chairs: Margaret Haugh and Jako Burgers