

THE EVIDENCE FOR EDUCATIONAL INTERVENTIONS

Presenter: Dave Davis

Abstract

There are a large number of educational or persuasive interventions geared to optimise or improve the competence and performance of practicing health professionals. This session will focus on: clear definitions for these strategies; an outline of some of the evidence for the effect of these methods; and strategies to develop them and assess their effect. The session will be highly interactive, drawing in participants' own experiences and plans.