Attend this 90-minute webinar to learn about the philosophy and approach that four organizations take regarding public comment of their reviews and guidelines. How do they define public? What feedback is sought? What document(s) do they share? How are comments managed? Are favorable and unfavorable comments handled in the same way? Has the public comment had an impact on the recommendations and overall quality of their guidelines? Do they believe public comment is a worthwhile step?

Speakers:

- Lisa Fatheree: College of American Pathologists
- Tom Oliver and Kate Einhaus: American Society of Clinical Oncology
- Sheila McNair: Program in Evidence-Based Care, Cancer Care Ontario
- Lisa Satterfield: American Academy of Otolaryngology – Head & Neck Surgery Foundation

Moderator:

- Thomas Getchius: G-I-N/NA Steering Committee Past-Chair
