

Erin Nunin

Erin is the Developing Countries Program Manager with Therapeutic Guidelines Limited. The Program aims to increase access to quality health resources and support local standard treatment guideline development in LMIC.

Erin is a Pharmacist who has worked in developing countries for over 7 years, including working with WHO in Solomon Islands and the Clinton Health Access Initiative in Swaziland.