

Professor Narasimman Swaminathan

Narasimman Swaminathan is a Physiotherapy educator and researcher, working as Vice Principal, Faculty of Allied Health Sciences, Sri Ramachandra Medical College and Research Institute (Deemed to be university), Chennai, India. He has completed his Post-graduation in Cardio Pulmonary Physiotherapy in 2003 and two years fellowship in Advanced Medical Education and Research (FAIMER) in the year 2012.

Narasimman has completed two Cochrane systematic reviews as a co-author. He has conducted several workshops on evidence based physiotherapy practice across the country. He is recognised for his academic and research contribution and received Indian association of Physiotherapists Prestigious CP Nair oration award and Golden batch of Poland Physiotherapy association. He teaches evidence based practice to the entry level and postgraduate health sciences programme and focusing on developing, adapting and implementing the guidelines in developing countries.